

Ein guter Tag für eine Tour
(A good day for a tour)
A Swiss & German heritage tour

TUSCARAWAS COUNTY, OHIO
TravelTusc.com 800-527-3387

Julie Levengood, Group Tour Manager
grouptour@traveltusc.com

Downtown Sugarcreek

Be sure to stop by the Brick Wall Sculpture located at the corner of Broadway & Main. This handcrafted sculpture features the history and culture of the Sugarcreek area. Next, venture across the street to the Alpine Hills Museum. Explore three floors of historic artifacts that relate to the Swiss and Amish culture of Sugarcreek. As you stroll throughout the downtown, enjoy the Swiss murals on local storefronts and don't forget to stop by the World's Largest Cuckoo Clock which plays the polka and entertains visitors every 30 minutes.

Sugarcreek Information Center, P.O. Box 443, Sugarcreek, OH 44681 | 888-609-7592
www.visitsugarcreek.com

Allow 1-2 hours to explore the downtown area.

Admission: All suggestions are free, however the Alpine Hills Museum does accept donations.

Dutch Valley Campus

Enjoy this lunch stop and shopping excursion on the campus of Dutch Valley. Explore the shops of the Dutch Valley Gifts and Dutch Valley Market before you enjoy some made-from-scratch, old-fashioned comfort food along with fresh baked desserts at the Dutch Valley Restaurant.

Historic Zoar Village

Founded by a group of 200 German Separatists seeking religious freedom, this National Historic Landmark, celebrates the life and times of Zoar, Ohio. Explore the grounds of this quaint village with original buildings dating back to 1817. Costumed interpreters guide visitors as they travel back in time with visits to the Town Hall, Number One House, Bakery, Garden House and beautiful Zoar Garden to learn how this village worked and worshipped for over 80 years as a communal society.

Allow 1-1/2 to 2 hours for tour. | Admission $8 per person
800-262-6195 | 198 Main Street, Zoar, OH 44697 | www.historiczoarvillage.com

Canal Tavern of Zoar

Open exclusively for groups and special events, you'll dine from a diverse menu featuring a selection of German cuisine. Enjoy the patio area overlooking the Ohio and Erie Canal. "Travelers" will enjoy the casual atmosphere of this 1829 restored inn.

8806 Towpath Road NE, Bolivar, OH 44612 | 330-874-4444 | www.canaltavernofzoar.com

Admission prices subject to change. Please confirm with the attraction at the time of booking.*